

H2: KHABELE MATLOSA

Khabele Matlosa is a vegetable farmer producing cabbage, spinach, tomatoes, peppers, cauliflower, broccoli and many more.

He started farming in 1996 where he was producing and selling eggs and started vegetable farming as a business in 2015. He produces about 5000 cabbage heads, 10000 lettuce heads, 5000 spinach bun-

Company:

District:

Resource Centre:

Mahooana Agro Services

Berea

Teya-teyaneng Resource Centre, Ha Molemane

dles and many more in a year on a 5000m² area and sells to Pick 'n Pay, Shoprite, hotels, caterers, Spar in Ficksburg and many more. He has received funding from Small-holder Agriculture Development Project (SADP) and one of the structures was financed by Amiran under the Kenyan Enhanced Integrated Framework (EIF) project. He also acquired trainings from Global Gap.

He sells to Pick 'n Pay, Shoprite, hotels, caterers, Spar in Ficksburg and many more.