

H8: TSELISO NTHAMA

Tseliso Nthama is a farmer and the owner of Temo ea Potjo, a farm that is located a Mok'hopha Mekaling in Mohale's Hoek district.

He was first introduced to farming by his family in 1964 but he started producing for himself in 1984.

He works with his brother and they are cultivating 6 acres of land for producing different kinds of vegetables.

Company:

District:

Resource Centre:

Temo ea Potjo le bana ba hae
Mohale's Hoek
Mekaling, Mok'hopha

Their production capacity on annual basis is 50 000 cabbage heads, 300 000 onions and tomatoes.

This business was started from both their personal savings and trainings received from their late father.

This farm sells to street vendors, Mohale's Hoek traders and the community at large.

He was first introduced to farming by his father in 1964, but he started producing for himself in 1984.