

P4: MABELE MAJAKE

Majake Mabele is a farm manager and partner in a family business called Mabele Poultry.

In 2012, he bought point of lay but the supplier disappeared with their money, so together with his family they later started their own poultry business which raises layers to point of lay in 2018.

Their farm produces 5 000- 10 000 chickens on order every year, depending on changes in the market.

They produce hy-line brown layers and their market includes all the ten districts of Lesotho and part of Free State, although he struggles to sell beyond the border due to South African restrictions.

He produces about 7000-10000 chickens.
