

PG2: SEMPE MAKHAOLA

Sempe Makhaola is a pig farmer and owns a farm named JAJA Farmers which is located at Metolong in Maseru district.

Sempe started pig keeping in 2005 but registered JAJA Farmers in 2018. The farm has a total of five Camboroughs and one boar and currently has 16 piglets which are ready for the market.

He started keeping the Cambor-ough breed in February 2021 after he received a grant from Small-holder Agriculture Development Project (SADP).

Prior to this grant he has been keeping the Landrace breed with around 24 piglets produced in a year.

The current market for the piglets is other farmers and he fattens other piglets and sells to Cousin's Butchery – Ha Tsolo and other butcheries such as Dion and Twisters occasionally.
